PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On June 1, 2008, at approximately 3:10 AM, Marco A. JUAREZ-Herrera (Defendant) applied for admission into the United States through the San Ysidro Port of Entry via the pedestrian primary lanes. Defendant presented to a U. S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer a United States passport bearing his own photograph and the name "Francisco Javier Rico" as his entry document. Defendant stated to the CBP Officer he was a United States Citizen. The CBP Officer received an automated computer generated referral and subsequently escorted Defendant to secondary for further inspection.

In secondary, CBP Officers discovered Defendant was not the lawful owner of the document presented. Defendant was searched by fingerprint submission through the Automated Biometric Identification System (IDENT). IDENT returned a match to the query confirming Defendant's true identity and linking him to Immigration records.

During a video recorded interview, Defendant was advised of his Miranda Rights, acknowledged his rights and elected to answer questions without the benefit of counsel. Defendant admitted he is a citizen of Mexico without legal rights or documents to enter the United States. Defendant admitted willfully and knowingly making a false statement in an application for a United States Passport with the intent to acquire a passport for his own use.

Defendant stated about nine years ago he paid between $10,000.00 and $12,000.00 USD to obtain a California birth certificate that he used to apply for a California Identification Card and subsequently a United States Passport. Defendant stated he acquired the United States Passport for the purpose of entering the United States illegally. Defendant stated he was going to Chula Vista, California to seek employment and reside with relatives.
